

Title: Personal Portfolio Website

Content:

My name is Chitransh Phalkey

I am a Computer Science student

This is my personal portfolio website

It shows my skills, education, projects, and experience

I made this website using HTML and CSS

You can say:

“This portfolio website represents my personal and academic information in a professional way.”

Slide 2 - Design & Layout

Title: Website Design

Content:

- The website has a modern and professional design
- I used a dark theme with gradient colors
- Background image gives a coding environment feel
- Smooth animations and hover effects are added
- The website is responsive for mobile and laptop

You can say:

“I focused on clean design and smooth animations to make the website attractive.”

Slide 3 - Sections in Website

Title: Website Sections

Content:

- Header with name and career role
- Basic information like email, phone, location
- Career objective section
- Skills and education details
- Projects, experience, and certifications
- Footer with copyright

You can say:

“The website is divided into sections so information is easy to read.”

Slide 4 - Skills & Education

Title: Skills and Education

Content:

- Skills shown using interactive skill buttons
- Skills include:
 - HTML & CSS
 - JavaScript (Basics)
 - Python
 - Git & GitHub
 - DSA basics
- Education from school to B.Tech in Computer Science
- Currently studying at Symbiosis Institute of Technology, Nagpur

You can say:

“This section highlights my technical skills and educational background.”

Slide 5 - Projects & Experience

Title: Projects and Experience

Content:

- Student Portfolio Website
- Calculator using HTML, CSS, JavaScript
- Experience as Front End Developer
- Learned real-world web development basics
- Improved coding and problem-solving skills

You can say:

“These projects helped me understand practical web development.”

Slide 6 - Conclusion

Title: Conclusion

Content:

- Portfolio shows my journey as a student developer
- Helps recruiters understand my profile
- Easy to update and improve in future
- Shows my interest in software development
- Thank you

You can say:

“This portfolio website is the first step towards my professional career.”